For the past decade, Janes been able to recapture her sense of peace after years of being bullied. By day she edits marketing jargon, by night she watches television reruns with her gay neighbor, Larry. Shes comfortable. Then, after she meets her new coworker, Eva, television reruns are no longer an option. Too shy to get to know Eva in real life, Jane creates an online alter ego and starts to follow her on Twitter. Face-to-face, Jane is nothing more than Evas nondescript, clumsy co-workera social catastrophe. But, behind the safety of her laptop screen, she becomes confident and empowered with purpose and talent. The two hit it off, and what forms is an undeniable creative union, one with the ability to positively change many lives. Theres just one major problem standing in the way, though. Can she fulfill her purpose and make a change in the world living the rest of her life as an alter ego Is she brave enough to reveal her true identity and risk squandering all shes gained by it This item ships from multiple locations.
