Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There is a reason New York City is called The City that Never Sleeps, and it is not for reasons we have all become accustomed to. This anthology of 19 urban horror stories explores the dark corners, shadowy alleys and mysterious underworld of all five boroughs of New York City providing the true reason why The City Never Sleeps. Trade Paperback Edition Color Cover with 19 Black White Internal Illustrations (each story is illustrated) Illustrated by Luke Spooner Introduction by Peter Rawlik Author of ReAnimators The Weird Company Afterword by Brian J. Cano SCARED! TV Haunted Collector Dark Tales From Elder Regions: New York will be the first in an annual anthology by Myth Ink Books. If you love New York City in all its shapes and guises (and who doesn't?) and are a fan of well-crafted horror fiction of every variety, you'll relish the new Myth Ink Books collection of 20 vividly weird stories all set in The Big Apple, Dark Tales from Elder Regions: New York. These highly inventive tales tap into the city's luridly storied past as well as the gritty opulence of its present and are rich in historical detail and cultural nuance. It's almost like a trip to NYC and far cheaper than an airline ticket. So grab your reading glasses, pack your carry on bag, and get ready for some delicious shudders, cheap thrills, and heady visions in the city that puts the Gothic into Gotham, with this fine selection of stories that bring chilling nightmares to the city that never sleeps. -David Barker, author (with W. H. Pugmire) of The Revenant of Rebecca Pascal Dark Tales From...
