On Saturday December 14, his Royal Highness the Prince Consort died, at the comparatively early age of 42. His death was the cause of deep and general sorrow, in which the people of Birmingham most sincerely participated. The day of the funeral, December 23, was observed here with unusual solemnity. The scene presented is thus described in the Journal of the 28th: --If externals may be taken as a gauge of those hidden feelings which are now and then awakened in the public breast by some great and momentous national...
