OLD FLAMES: TEEN BULLIES PREP SCHOOL CRUELTY

Starr Publications, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bullies: How Prep School Bullying, Hazing and Unspeakable Abuse Altered a Young Man s Future. Gus is blessed with family wealth and opportunity. His father and grandfather produce boots for the U.S. military. Everyone wore Gordon boots - from the newest recruits to the most senior officers in the United States Army and Marine Corps. Gordon boots carried the mystique of Prussian militarism; the smell of victory in soft, thick black leather. His father s exploits in the First World War made even the most arrogant look like failures. Prep school, by contrast, becomes a daily fight for survival. Bullies set his room on fire, and finally, the vicious attack - the point of no return for an innocent young man. His father hires a Serbian boxer - a former para-military killer - to toughen up his son. Slobodan forces Gus to carry thirty pounds of rocks in a sack on my back at all times. Later the weight would increase. Even while sitting I would be forced bear the weight of the rocks. Gus is transformed into a decorated flame throwing Marine. But war medals cannot erase the childhood trauma, nor the pain he inflicted as a result. Hoping to mend deep emotional wounds, Gus seeks redemption in love from an otherwise perfect woman who cannot provide it. Teenagers who suffer from bullying or hazing must read this book. Parental wealth does not protect teens behind private school or prep school walls. The slide into a life of pain and betrayal begins with one treacherous act. Superficial investigations and apologies only add fuel to the flames. Teens thirsting for books about war must read this book...
