Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.What do Barack Obama, John McCain, Hillary Clinton, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi, Mitch McConnell, John Kerry and Mitt Romney have in common? You might say that the list contains both Democrats and Republicans; however, all are members of a one-party system, we call the political establishment, according to Robert Meyer. And all of them would be extremely displeased if you found out their social and economic policies were based on illusions-destructive illusions. Members of this elite group of liberty violators espouse the same political platform: government interventions on the market place, violations of personal liberty and economic freedom, redistribution of wealth, and policies that cause unemployment. The only differences lie in the degree and method each one advocates. Even worse, the political establishment has teamed up with the financial establishment in order to extract the wealth of productive citizens. According to Meyer, their main purpose is to transfer wealth from the average American citizen to members of the political and financial establishment. Members of this elite group of plunders consider you and I Milk Cows -to be milked dry at their convenience. First, he conquers 7 destructive economic illusions, from the myth that the government creates wealth, to the belief that government interventionism improves the marketplace, all the way to claims that the government creates free enterprise jobs. He also demonstrates how the Federal Reserve System causes the boom and bust cycles that end up in recessions and depressions. It s monetary policies make sure wealth travels Main Street to Wall Street. He continually shows how members of the political and financial establishment violate Natural and Economic Law, much to the detriment of hard-working people...
