

A Vessel for the King (Paperback)

By Sue Ann Jackson

Aka: Yola, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Any casual onlooker would have thought all the clay the King's potter dug out of the clay bank was just ordinary gray clay, but one lump named Adam had big dreams. He was convinced he would play an important role in the King's palace. After all, he was a chosen piece of clay from the King's clay bank. The day the potter dug him out was only the beginning of the journey . . . for Adam had no idea of all he would learn and just how important he would become. A Vessel for the King is a current children's book author's fantasy story filled with lovely original illustrations by the author. The story could be considered a fable as well, as Adam grows spiritually while learning many of the valuable lessons we all try to teach our children including perseverance, letting go of fear, and the value and rewards of giving oneself freely.
