Brighton Publishing LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Mike Temple is a top executive in the defense industry. He is happily married and respected by his peers and the politicians he has worked with on his company s behalf. On the day he is asked to join Jimmy Carter s administration as the secretary of defense, Mike receives a mysterious letter from Korea where his defense industry career began. The letter begins with Dear American Father. . .and what Mike learns from the letter changes his life forever. In her letter, Victoria, Mike s Amerasian daughter, begs him to save her from the disturbing plans her mother, Yun-Jin, has for her. Victoria wants to come to America. The letter jars Mike s memory about the years he spent in Korea and the Korean woman he fell for. . but not hard enough to marry her. After creating a temporary rift in his marriage when he reveals the news about the daughter he didn t know he had, Mike returns to Korea with the blessings of his wife, MaryAnn. Before his departure, the couple agreed that Mike should do...
