Alexander Patterson, to the Legislature of Pennsylvania, During the Session of 1803-4: For Compensation for the Monies He Expended and the Services He Rendered in Defence of the Pennsylvania Title, Against the Connecticut Claimants The burthen of the Intruders complaint, by which they have hitherto excited false commiseration, relied upon the cruel treatment they say they have received from the Pennsylvania Settlers, the Indians and Tories. The first of these complaints, viz. The Pennsylvania Settlers, has been fairly explained in the preceding part of this petition. The latter, respecting the Indians and Torres, shall be faithfully detailed. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
